

Fall Fest 2011

Saturday, October 1, 2011

at Meadows Fellowship Center & Campus Center

Schedule of Events

9:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m.

Auction Item Preview: register for bidder number; cinnamon rolls and coffee for sale at the Campus Center

9:00 a.m. - 2:30 p.m.

Bake Sale will have lots of wonderful home baked items for sale

9:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m.

The Market Place will have items such as meat, cheese, pretzels, jelly, jam, apple butter, pumpkins, apples, popcorn, soups and more

The Boutique will have quilted jackets, quilted bags, handmade purses, soaps, candles, baskets and more. There will be Madame Alexander Baby Doll, never removed from her box and Gene April Showers, a coca-cola doll from Ashton-Drake Company.

The Arts Nook will have items such as books, artwork, photography, handmade cards, collectors items and more

Wagon Rides through Meadows Mennonite Retirement Community in a Buck Board Wagon pulled by a Quarter Horse will be available at the cost of $3.00 per person. John Yoder, Gridley, is donating all proceeds to the 2011 Fall Fest.

9:00 a.m. - 12 Noon

Children's Activities will be in the picnic shelter in Peaceful Meadows Park. Activities will include: face painting, Fun House bounce house, cake walk and pumpkin painting. The charge for the cake walk will be 50 cents per ticket. There is no charge for the face painting, bounce house or pumpkin painting

9:00 a.m. - 12 Noon

Blood Pressure Screening by nursing students from Mennonite College of Nursing at Illinois State University

10:00 a.m. - 11:00 a.m.

Living Water is a musical group from Gridley, Illinois composed of Mark Steffen (Bass), Tim Kaupp (Tenor), Mark Butikofer (Lead), Philip Romersberger (1st Tenor), and Brian Steffen (Bass, Guitar). They sing southern and bluegrass gospel songs, both acapella and with guitar accompaniment.

11:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m.

Pork Chop/Veggie Burger Sandwich dinner will include pork chop or veggie burger sandwich grilled by Ringgerø in Gridley; potato salad from Daveø Supermarket in Fairbury; applesauce, homemade pie and a drinkí .all for a minimum donation of $7.00 in advance and $8.00 at the door. Rex Moore from Bloomington will provide background Harp music during lunch.

1:00 p.m. - 2:30 p.m.

The Auction with Bob Yoder, Auctioneer, will be held in the Campus Center. Examples of items that will be sold include:

- a Borgello pattern Queen Size Quilt (98ö x 98ö) multi-colored hand quilted by Mennonite Women in Arthur
- a Whole Cloth Feathered Heart with Swan Quilt (110ö x 115ö) in off white color, hand quilted by Mennonite Women in Arthur
- Boy Flying Kite quilted wall hanging (23öx23ö) made by Amish Women in Wisconsin
- Wandering Bear Paw quilted wall hanging (36öx36ö) made by Amish Women in Wisconsin
- Other wall hangings by Eve Zook, Congerville
- a crocheted wool and acrylic multi-colored afghan (38ö x 68ö)
- rag rugs woven on the loom at Meadows Mennonite Retirement Community by Barbara Ringger
- two pieces of replica primitive furniture
- tickets to Illinois State University Athletic events
- variety of gift certificates
- other donated goods and services

The proceeds from this annual event will be divided between two projects this year. Half of the proceeds will go to the Chaplaincy Fund and the other half will be used for carpeting at Meadows Mennonite Home.

